Your Challenge

Use AI tools to analyze strategic threats and opportunities, practicing advanced prompting techniques

Reflection Questions

Which AI tool did you use? (ChatGPT, Claude, Gemini, other)

What strategic question did you explore?

What surprised you most about AI's strategic analysis?

How did AI's analysis compare to your initial thinking?

- ☐ Confirmed my assumptions
- ☐ Challenged my assumptions
- ☐ Offered new perspectives I hadn't considered

- ☐ Raised questions I need to investigate further

Which prompting technique was most effective?

- ☐ Risk Deep-Dive
- ☐ Reverse Prompting (AI argues against your position)
- ☐ AI Debate (multiple perspectives)
- ☐ Other: _____

Key Insight

My biggest “aha moment” from this exercise:

How could you apply this AI-assisted analysis in your role?

One prompting technique I'll use on Monday morning:

Exercise 3: Dragon's Den - Your Team's Pitch

Time: 2:00-3:00 PM (Preparation) | 3:00-4:10 PM (Presentations)

Your Team's Scenario

Which RetailFlow investment scenario did your team receive?

- ☐ Scenario A: _____
- ☐ Scenario B: _____
- ☐ Scenario C: _____
- ☐ Scenario D: _____

Your Investment Recommendation

Your team's position:

- ☐ Fund at requested level
- ☐ Fund with conditions: _____
- ☐ Do not fund

Requested amount: $_____

Your recommended amount: $_____

Reflection Questions

What made this investment case strong or weak?

Strengths: _____

Weaknesses/Concerns:

Which frameworks did you apply in making your decision?

- ☐ AI Transformation Matrix (which quadrant?)
- ☐ Data Value Pyramid (what level is RetailFlow at?)
- ☐ Three Horizons Model (which horizon?)
- ☐ AI Investment Model (strategic fit, feasibility, ROI)
- ☐ Innovation Adoption Framework (barriers to adoption)

What data or information was missing that you wish you had?

Key Insight

My biggest “aha moment” from this exercise:

What will you do differently when evaluating AI investments at your organization?

Exercise 4: Dragon's Den - Investment Committee

Time: 3:00-4:10 PM

Your Role

Evaluate other teams' pitches using the AI Investment Checklist and strategic frameworks

Pitch Evaluations
